

South Thames Acute Pain Group

Surrey and Sussex

Healthcare NHS Trust

South Thames Acute Pain Group

S T A P G

Annual Conference

Thursday 11th November 2021 - Virtual Meeting

(Approved for 5 CPD points by The Royal College of Anaesthetists, UK)

Topics

1. Acute and chronic pain in intensive care patients

Dr Harriet Kemp

Clinical Lecturer, Imperial College London

2. Analgesia for knee replacements – current trend and future directions

Dr John C John

Consultant Anaesthetist, Robert Jones and Agnes Hunt Orthopaedic Hospital, Oswestry

3. The role of the physiotherapist in acute pain teams

Jackie Walumbe

Advanced Practice Physiotherapist, University College London Hospitals

4. Powerful Pain Education:

Influencing and Convincing Others to Improve Pain Management

Dr Emma Briggs

Senior Lecturer, Florence Nightingale Faculty, King's College London

5. Lidocaine-infusions

Prof Andrew Smith

Consultant Anaesthetist, Royal Lancaster Infirmary

6. Prevention of persistent postoperative pain

Prof Sibs Anwar

Consultant Anaesthetist, St. Bartholomew's Hospital

7. Short-acting spinals and analgesia in day surgery

Dr Robbie Erskine

Consultant Anaesthetist, Derby

Conference fee: £ 50 per delegate

More information on our website: www.stapg.org.uk

Registration: <https://bookcpd.com/course/STAPG-2021>

Enquiries: stapgconference@gmail.com